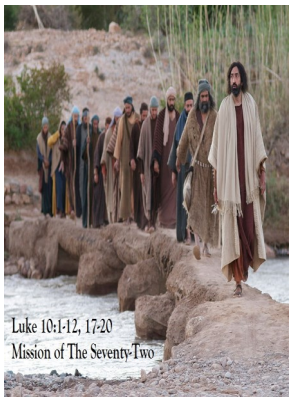
14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

7th July 2019

Reflection for Today



I can't see myself preaching by the town clock or travelling town to town telling people about the Kingdom of God. Thankfully, I doubt that's the message in today's Gospel anyway. Jesus sends disciples ahead of Him, taking the good news of God's love out into the world. I think each of us is called to do that, using our particular talents and gifts so that God's love shines out through us. Jesus reminds us not to get caught up in what we don't need – no luggage is necessary, trusting God is enough.
Let us ask for the discernment to know what our calling is and for the courage to respond. Just as for the disciples, our reward will be great joy.

P.T.

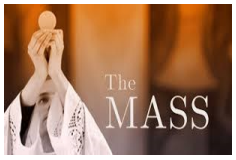
"A Walk through the Mass: A Step-by-Step Explanation"

Part two: Story telling



Liturgy of the Word. When we gather at a friend's home for a meal, we always begin with conversation, telling our stories. At Mass, after the rites of gathering, we sit down and listen as readings from the Word of God are proclaimed. They are the stories of God's people.

Three readings and a psalm. On Sundays there are three readings from the Bible. The first reading will be from the Hebrew Scriptures. (except during the Easter season) We recall the origins of our covenant. It will relate to the Gospel selection and will give background and an insight into the meaning of what Jesus will do in the Gospel. Then we will sing or recite a psalm—a song from God's own inspired hymnal, the Book of Psalms of the Hebrew Bible. The second reading will usually be from one of the letters of Paul or another apostolic writing. The third reading will be taken from one of the four Gospels. Some visitors to the Catholic Mass are surprised to find us reading from the Bible! We have not generally been famous for our Bible reading, and yet the Mass has always been basically and fundamentally biblical. Even some Catholics might be surprised to learn how much of the Mass is taken from the Bible: Not only the three readings and the psalm, not only the obviously biblical prayers such as the Holy, Holy, Holy and the Lord's Prayer, but most of the words and phrases of the prayers of the Mass are taken from the Bible.

School NEWS

St. Mary's Primary School - In

On Tuesday, the Young Vinnies visited the Eversley Community Garden in Nelson Street. It is the plot of land awaiting development by Eversley Rest Home and being used, with their permission, by neighbours, to develop a community garden. Mrs Catherine Greeves, a neighbour, helped the Young Vinnies plant lavender cuttings and 'love-in-a mist' seeds. Catherine warmly invites the parishioners of the Catholic Parish of Hastings to stop and have a chat anytime and would welcome support with this community venture. The Young Vinnies enjoyed getting their hands dirty and look forward to going back next term. Teresa Neilson D.R.S. Look for St. Mary's on Facebook. St. John's College -

On Thursday the College celebrated their feast day. A wonderful part of our celebration was the baptism of six of our young men and their first Eucharist. Thanks to our chaplain, Faaki Tuanaki for preparing our students to receive these sacraments of initiation. Friday was a teacher-only-day at St John's where our staff had the opportunity of going on retreat, spending time developing their own spirituality. We wish all our young men a wonderful mid-year break and look forward to their return in term three. Don't forget that the College has its Open Evening on Sunday, 4th August, starting at 6:00 pm

Sacred Heart College -

Our Y13 girls ran our annual Leadership Lab on Thursday for selected Y8 students – the guest speaker was Superintendent Tania Kura, the Eastern District Commander of the New Zealand Police. On July 31 we will hold our annual Touch of Class – where Year 7 and 8 students get to experience a day in the life of a high school student. Please contact the school office on 8353761 if you would like to be part of this day. Term 3 begins with a Work Day – a PTA fundraiser when all Sacred Heart students work at a job in the community and donate ALL the money they earn to our College. We wish our students and staff a restful end of term break. God Bless Maria Neville-Foster (Principal)
